MUSIC OF THE WEEK

This week's music was the John Rutter's For the Beauty of the Earth. It's such a special piece to listen to as we approach Remembrance Day and pray for peace and harmony.

GOING FOR GOLD

Our new behavior framework is going very well.
Huge well done to all the pupils going for gold!
They really are living our school vision.

You are the light of the world'

REMEMBRANCE DAY

The children gathered together to mark this special day. Mr Binder, our pastoral assistant, led us in prayers followed by our Head Girl, Isabelle, and Head Boy, Leo, reciting 'They shall not grow old.'

The Last Post was played beautifully by Hugo, a Westminster School student. There followed the two minute silence. Hugo then visited Early Years and played to the Nursery and Reception children. Early Years and KS1 pupils made their own beautiful poppies.

It was a very special acknowledgement of the sacrifices made in the past and today.
